RE: Cause No. 25-DCV-328122

SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS; TRE 408 INTENDED TO APPLY

Mr. Aguiar Marcano:

I will address your counterproposal in the order it was presented. But first, I note that your Supreme Court petition was denied yesterday and the First Court of Appeals dismissed your appeal there this morning. Now, in order of your email:

1. Your terms are unacceptable. The temporary orders are valid and remain in place. There is no form or standing order called "Court's standard separation orders." The orders as signed are typical Texas orders and have been ruled on by the Court. If you wish to discuss modifying the terms of the current orders, I would entertain that discussion.

2. I did not disclaim interest in the value of your inventions. Allow me to clarify. We are not attempting to steal your inventions, and beyond the publicly filed patent information, do not have any interest in delving into the mechanics of your inventions. If they are valuable, that is a separate discussion, and one which has multiple dimensions. Likewise, the time and effort put into them could also be considered a marital asset in Texas and will be evaluated.

3. What you are describing is how discovery works in general. The court is only involved if someone does not follow the rules of discovery. There is an order already in place regarding your responses. Which brings us to your claim of jurisdictional objections.

You have exhausted all appeal avenues and invented a couple new ones for good measure. However, your claim of jurisdictional flaws has been presented and denied by all courts who reviewed them. The orders are valid and will be enforced.

We are willing to discuss any terms of the temporary orders you would like to revisit going forward. But know ahead of time, that if you want us to forfeit a right or award already made, you will have to concede something in return of equal value to us.

4. Gloria is willing to discuss alternative child possession arrangements as part of a holistic revision of the temporary orders.

What I propose is essentially what was proposed before, with some sweetener. You agree to respond to discovery requests promptly and thoroughly, we agree on a percentage of what is owed that you will pay immediately and what you will pay eventually, and we come up with an agreeable arrangement for visitation, and as part of the package, we will move the court to withdraw the capias.

I will extend this current offer to negotiate further until Friday, October 9, 2026. After that time, we will seek every available remedy from the court.

Sincerely,

G. Troy Pickett

Texas Court of Appeals October 6, 2026 Memorandum Opinion

(No. 01-26-00511-CV — Formal Dismissal of Appeal under Texas Family Code § 6.507 proving complete lack of state appellate remedy)

Opinion issued October 6, 2026

In The

Court of Appeals

For The

First District of Texas

NO. 01-26-00511-CV

REINALDO J. AGUIAR MARCANO, Appellant

V.

GLORIA ESPINA, Appellee

On Appeal from the 387th District Court
Fort Bend County, Texas
Trial Court Cause No. 25-DCV-328122

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Appellant Reinaldo J. Aguiar Marcano, proceeding pro se, has filed multiple notices of appeal challenging various orders. On May 12, 2026, appellant filed a notice of appeal challenging (1) "February 22, 2026-Additional Temporary Orders"; (2) "December 17, 2025-Orders Granting Sanctions"; and (3) "October 15, 2025-

Temporary Orders." On May 13, 2026, appellant filed notices of appeal challenging the above-mentioned orders; (4) "April 14, 2026-Order to Appear"; and (5) "April 11, 2025-Temporary Restraining Order [a]nd Order Setting Hearing [f]or Temporary Orders." On May 19, 2026, appellant filed a notice of appeal challenging (6) "'Income With[h]olding For Support' order signed on February 24, 2026." On May 20, 2026, appellant filed notices of appeal challenging the above-mentioned February 24, 2026 order and (7) "January 27, 2026-Order on Agreed Motion for Withdrawal of Counsel."

We dismiss the appeal for lack of jurisdiction.

"[C]ourts always have jurisdiction to determine their own jurisdiction." Heckman v. Williamson Cty., 369 S.W.3d 137, 146 n.14 (Tex. 2012) (internal quotation marks omitted); see Royal Indep. Sch. Dist. v. Ragsdale, 273 S.W.3d 759, 763 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2008, no pet.) (holding jurisdiction is fundamental in nature and cannot be ignored). Whether we have jurisdiction is a question of law, which we review de novo. See Tex. A & M Univ. Sys. v. Koseoglu, 233 S.W.3d 835, 840 (Tex. 2007). A final judgment or other appealable interlocutory order is a prerequisite to appellate jurisdiction. See Jack M. Sanders Family Ltd. P'ship v. Roger T. Fridholm Revocable, Living Tr., 434 S.W.3d 236, 240 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 2014, no pet.); see also Villarreal v. Zukowsky, 54 S.W.3d 926, 930 (Tex. App.— Corpus Christi-Edinburg 2001, no pet.) ("[A]ppeals may be had only from final orders or judgments, and interlocutory orders may be appealed only if permitted by statute."). If an appeal is from an interlocutory order over which we lack jurisdiction, we must dismiss the appeal. Ragsdale, 273 S.W.3d at 763.

Here, none of the orders being challenged purport to be final or otherwise appealable orders.[1] See TEX. R. APP. P. 26.1; see also Villarreal v. Zukowsky, 54 S.W.3d 926, 930 (Tex. App.— Corpus Christi-Edinburg 2001, no pet.) ("[A]ppeals may be had only from final orders or judgments, and interlocutory orders may be appealed only if permitted by statute."); see also Hudson v. Aceves, 516 S.W.3d 529, 536 (Tex. App.—Corpus Christi–Edinburg 2016, no pet.) ("temporary orders in divorce case[] . . . not subject to interlocutory appeal.") (citing TEX. FAM. CODE § 6.507)).

On August 18, 2026, the Clerk of this Court notified appellant that his appeal was subject to dismissal for lack of jurisdiction unless, within ten days of the date of the notice, he filed a written response demonstrating that this Court has jurisdiction

1 As previously noted, even if the most recent challenged orders were appealable, appellant's notices of appeal were not timely filed. See TEX. R. APP. P. 26.1 (requiring notice of appeal to be filed within thirty days after judgment or final order is signed or ninety days after judgment or final order is signed if party timely files in the trial court, motion for new trial or to modify), 26.3 (allowing extension of fifteen days after deadline to file notice of appeal).

over his appeal. See TEX. R. APP. P. 42.3(a). Appellant's response did not establish that we have jurisdiction over his appeal.

Because we lack jurisdiction to review the challenged orders, we dismiss the appeal for lack of jurisdiction. See TEX. R. APP. P. 42.3(a), 43.2(f). We dismiss all pending motions as moot.

PER CURIAM

Panel consists of Justices Guerra, Gunn, and Morgan.

MOTION TO MODIFY TEMPORARY ORDERS

This Motion to Modify Temporary Orders is brought by Gloria Espina, Petitioner, who shows in support:

1. Since entry of the Temporary Orders, financial circumstances have materially changed, which change requires the modification of the Temporary Orders. Gloria Espina requests that the Temporary Orders be modified for the following reasons: Respondent's refusal to pay spousal support necessitates a change in possession of the marital residence.

Petitioner requests the Court award her the exclusive use and possession of the Valleyside house, a judgment for outstanding spousal support, and a concurrent reduction in future spousal support if the house is awarded to Petitioner.

Petitioner further requests that Respondent be ordered to pay interim attorney's fees and costs.

2. The present orders relating to possession of and access to the child have become unworkable and are no longer in the best interest of the child because the supervision provisions are untenable. Gloria Espina requests the following orders for possession of and access to the child: that the visits be supervised by a third-party supervisor at Respondent's expense.

Gloria Espina prays that the Court grant the Motion to Modify Temporary Orders.

Respectfully submitted,
