UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
AUSTIN DIVISION

No. 1:26-cv-01423

Haretz Hamuvlakhat Corp., et al.,
Plaintiffs,
v.
Adams Law Firm, P.C., et al.,
Defendants.

ORDER

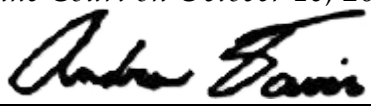

More than 90 days have passed since Plaintiffs filed their complaint. To date, no defendant has appeared and there is no evidence of proper service. Plaintiffs also have not paid the required filing fee or filed a motion to proceed in forma pauperis. On September 3, 2026, the Court ordered Plaintiffs to show cause why they had not timely effectuated service and also ordered Plaintiffs to either pay the required filing fee or file a motion to proceed in forma pauperis. ECF No. 5. Plaintiffs did not respond to the Court's order to show cause or pay the filing fee or submit an application to proceed in forma pauperis.

"If a defendant is not served within 90 days after the complaint is filed, the court--on motion or on its own after notice to the plaintiff--must dismiss the action without prejudice against that defendant or order that service be made within a specified time." FED. R. CIV. P. 4(m).

Plaintiffs have not shown good cause for their failure to timely effectuate service or complied with the Court's filing fee requirements. Plaintiffs' claims are dismissed without prejudice for failure to timely effectuate service and for failure to pay the required filing fee or file a motion to proceed in forma pauperis.

The clerk's office is directed to close this case.

So ordered by the Court on October 16, 2026.

ANDREW DAVIS
United States District Judge
