Plaintiff,

Case No. 4:26-cv-08794

G. TROY PICKETT, et al.,

Judge Kenneth M. Hoyt

Defendants.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF ORDER DENYING EMERGENCY PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION (DKT. 10)

Plaintiff Reinaldo Javier Aguiar Marcano respectfully submits this Motion for Reconsideration pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b), requesting the Court to vacate its October 13, 2026 Order (Dkt. 10). The Court's denial rested on two curable procedural grounds: the absence of service on Defendants, and the absence of evidence showing Plaintiff sought relief in state court. The attached evidentiary record definitively cures both concerns, demonstrating that Plaintiff has satisfied FRCP 65 notice requirements and fully exhausted state appellate remedies, thereby satisfying the bad-faith and futility exceptions to the Younger abstention doctrine.

I. COMPLIANCE WITH FRCP 65 NOTICE AND FRCP 4 SERVICE PROTOCOLS

The Court observed that Defendants have not been served with citations. Because Plaintiff has been directed to proceed via the U.S. Marshals Service (Dkt. 8), Plaintiff cannot legally serve the FRCP 4 summons himself. On October 14, 2026, Plaintiff submitted the required USM-285 forms to the Marshals (Exhibit 1).

To satisfy the immediate "actual notice" requirement of FRCP 65(a)(1) for injunctive relief, Plaintiff has dispatched the Complaint, the TRO Application (Dkt. 2),[1] and this Motion to Defendants via LetterStream, which tenders the documents directly to FedEx for overnight delivery (Exhibit 2). This method provides immediate, verifiable tracking without the logistical paradox and delay of dispatching a private process server solely to obtain a receipt for this filing. Plaintiff has also transmitted these documents via RPOST registered email (Exhibit 3). Defendants are now fully apprised of this federal action.

II. DOCUMENTARY PROOF OF STATE COURT FUTILITY AND APPELLATE EXHAUSTION

The Court noted a lack of evidence that Plaintiff sought relief in the state court. Plaintiff submits the official state court docket sheet / register of actions retrieved on October 14, 2026 (Exhibit 4; updating Complaint Ex. C, Dkt. 1-1 at 10–21), which proves that Plaintiff filed multiple emergency motions (Index #223, #234) that the presiding judge has deliberately refused to adjudicate for over 120 days. Under Fifth Circuit precedent, a state forum is inadequate if the state judge refuses to rule on constitutional challenges.

More importantly, Plaintiff did not stop at the trial court. Facing an imminent, unconstitutional capias arrest, Plaintiff specifically challenged the capias by seeking emergency relief from the First Court of Appeals via a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, which was denied on May 26, 2026 (No. 01-26-00516-CV; Exhibit 5). Plaintiff then escalated the constitutional challenge to the Supreme Court of Texas, which denied his Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus on June 29, 2026 (Cause No. 26-0511; Exhibit 6).

Any doubt regarding exhaustion of state remedies as to the capias is conclusively resolved by Defendant Pickett's own admission in his letter of October 6, 2026 (Exhibit 7; also of record as Complaint Ex. A, Dkt. 1-1 at 3–4): "I note that your Supreme Court petition was denied yesterday and the First Court of Appeals dismissed your appeal there this morning... You have exhausted all appeal avenues and invented a couple new ones for good measure." Furthermore, Pickett's letter demonstrates the bad-faith nature of the state proceedings, as he leverages the unconstitutional capias to extort Plaintiff: "...that you will pay immediately and what you will pay eventually, and we come up with an agreeable arrangement for visitation, and as part of the package, we will move the court to withdraw the capias." This extortionate use of the capias confirms that federal intervention is the exclusive remedy.

[1] Plaintiff respectfully notes that the Emergency TRO Application (Dkt. 2) is already on the Court's docket and is incorporated by reference herein; it is not attached as an exhibit to avoid redundancy.

Because Plaintiff has exhausted the entire state appellate hierarchy, the Anti-Injunction Act and Younger abstention do not bar this Court from acting under 42 U.S.C. §1983 (Mitchum v. Foster, 407 U.S. 225 (1972)). Federal intervention is now the exclusive remedy to prevent irreparable constitutional harm.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully prays that this Court: 1. GRANT this Motion for Reconsideration; 2. VACATE the Order at Dkt. 10; 3. SET an evidentiary hearing on Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction; and 4. Grant all other relief to which Plaintiff is entitled in law and equity.

Respectfully submitted,

CERTIFICATE OF CONFERENCE

I certify that on October 14, 2026, I attempted to confer with Defendants (and with Defendant Gloria Espina via her counsel, G. Troy Pickett) by transmitting copies of this motion via email. Because Defendants have not yet been served with formal process by the U.S. Marshals Service and have not entered an appearance in this action, a substantive conference could not be held to ascertain their position. Out of an abundance of caution, this motion is presented as OPPOSED.

EX PARTE REINALDO J. AGUIAR MARCANO, Relator

Original Proceeding on Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus

MEMORANDUM OPINION

On May 14, 2026, Relator Reinaldo J. Aguiar Marcano filed a petition for writ of habeas corpus claiming that the trial court conducted a contempt hearing earlier that morning and "is now poised to sign" proposed orders for his commitment and arrest.[1] Relator requests that our Court "issue an order staying the signing and execution of the Proposed Order for Commitment and Capias, and grant its writ of habeas corpus declaring the contempt proceeding and any resulting orders void, and discharging Relator from any threat of custody or restraint." On May 15, 2026, Relator filed an "Emergency Motion to Correct Prejudicial Docketing Error, Supplement to Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, and Renewed Plea for Immediate Consideration." Among other things, the new filing asserts that "the docket in the underlying Cause No. 25-DCV-328122 reflects that the presiding judge, the Honorable Oscar Telfair, III, has signed the 'Order for Capias and Setting Bond.'"

We deny the petition for writ of habeas corpus and all related motions and requests for relief.

RE: Cause No. 25-DCV-328122

SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS; TRE 408 INTENDED TO APPLY

Mr. Aguiar Marcano:

I will address your counterproposal in the order it was presented. But first, I note that your Supreme Court petition was denied yesterday and the First Court of Appeals dismissed your appeal there this morning. Now, in order of your email:

1. Your terms are unacceptable. The temporary orders are valid and remain in place. There is no form or standing order called "Court's standard separation orders." The orders as signed are typical Texas orders and have been ruled on by the Court. If you wish to discuss modifying the terms of the current orders, I would entertain that discussion.

2. I did not disclaim interest in the value of your inventions. Allow me to clarify. We are not attempting to steal your inventions, and beyond the publicly filed patent information, do not have any interest in delving into the mechanics of your inventions. If they are valuable, that is a separate discussion, and one which has multiple dimensions. Likewise, the time and effort put into them could also be considered a marital asset in Texas and will be evaluated.

3. What you are describing is how discovery works in general. The court is only involved if someone does not follow the rules of discovery. There is an order already in place regarding your responses. Which brings us to your claim of jurisdictional objections.

You have exhausted all appeal avenues and invented a couple new ones for good measure. However, your claim of jurisdictional flaws has been presented and denied by all courts who reviewed them. The orders are valid and will be enforced.

We are willing to discuss any terms of the temporary orders you would like to revisit going forward. But know ahead of time, that if you want us to forfeit a right or award already made, you will have to concede something in return of equal value to us.

4. Gloria is willing to discuss alternative child possession arrangements as part of a holistic revision of the temporary orders.

What I propose is essentially what was proposed before, with some sweetener. You agree to respond to discovery requests promptly and thoroughly, we agree on a percentage of what is owed that you will pay immediately and what you will pay eventually, and we come up with an agreeable arrangement for visitation, and as part of the package, we will move the court to withdraw the capias.

I will extend this current offer to negotiate further until Friday, October 9, 2026. After that time, we will seek every available remedy from the court.

Sincerely,

G. Troy Pickett
