Subject to the provisions in the following paragraph, the nonincurring conservator is ORDERED to pay the non-incurring conservator's percentage of the unreimbursed portion of the health-care expenses either by paying the health-care provider directly or by reimbursing the incurring conservator for any advance payment exceeding the incurring conservator's percentage of the unreimbursed portion of the health-care expenses within thirty days after the nonincurring conservator receives receipts, bills, statements, or explanations of benefits showing the unreimbursed portion of the health-care expense.

For the court to hold the nonincurring conservator in civil or criminal contempt for failing to pay the nonincurring conservator's court-ordered percentage of the unreimbursed portion of a health-care expense, the incurring conservator must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the nonincurring conservator personally received receipts, bills, statements, or explanations of benefits reflecting the unreimbursed portion of the health-care expense no later than thirty days after the incurring conservator received them. Failure by the incurring conservator to timely provide the nonincurring conservator with receipts, bills, statements, or explanation of benefits showing the unreimbursed portion of the health-care expenses does not relieve the nonincurring conservator of the obligation to pay the nonincurring conservator's court-ordered percentage of the unreimbursed portion of the health-care expense. Even if the incurring conservator is not in contempt of court, the nonincurring conservator remains liable to the incurring conservator for the nonincurring conservator's court-ordered percentage of the unreimbursed portion of a health-care expense and the court may award a judgment in the nature of child support against the nonincurring conservator in the amount of the unreimbursed portion of the heath-care expense the nonincurring conservator was ordered but failed to pay.

8. Secondary Coverage - IT IS ORDERED that if a conservator provides secondary health insurance coverage or dental insurance coverage for the child, the conservators shall cooperate fully with regard to the handling and filing of claims with the insurance carrier providing the coverage in order to maximize the benefits available to the child and to ensure that the conservator who pays for health-care expenses for the child is reimbursed for the payment from both carriers to the fullest extent possible.

9. Compliance with Insurance Company Requirements - Each conservator is ORDERED to conform to all requirements imposed by the terms and conditions of any policy of health or dental insurance covering the child in order to assure the maximum reimbursement or direct payment by any insurance company of the incurred health-care expense, including but not limited to requirements for advance notice to any carrier, second opinions, and the like. Each conservator is ORDERED to use "preferred providers," or services within the health maintenance organization or preferred provider network, if applicable. Disallowance of the bill by an insurance company shall not excuse the obligation of a conservator to make payment. Excepting emergency health-care expenses incurred on behalf of the child, if a party incurs health-care expenses for the child using "out-of-network" health-care providers or services, or fails to follow the insurance company procedures or requirements, that conservator shall pay all such health-care expenses incurred absent (1) written agreement of the conservators allocating such health-care expenses or (2) further order of the Court.

10. Claims - Except as provided in this paragraph, a conservator who is not carrying the health or dental insurance policy covering the child is ORDERED to provide to the party carrying the policy, within fifteen days of receiving them, all forms, receipts, bills, and statements reflecting the health-care expenses the conservator not carrying the policy incurs on behalf of the child. In accordance with section 1204.251 and 1504.055(a) of the Texas Insurance Code, IT IS ORDERED that the conservator who is not carrying the health or dental insurance policy covering the child, at that conservator's option, or others as authorized by law, may file any claims for health-care expenses directly with the insurance carrier with and from whom coverage is provided for the benefit of the child and receive payments directly from the insurance company. Further, for the sole purpose of section 1204.251 of the Texas Insurance Code, Reinaldo J. Aguiar is designated the managing conservator or possessory conservator of the child.

The conservator who is carrying the health or dental insurance policy covering the child is ORDERED to submit all forms required by the insurance company for payment or reimbursement of health-care expenses incurred by either conservator on behalf of the child to the insurance carrier within fifteen days of that conservator's receiving any form, receipt, bill, or statement reflecting the expenses.

11. Constructive Trust for Payments Received - IT IS ORDERED that any insurance payments received by a conservator from the health or dental insurance carrier as reimbursement for health-care expenses incurred by or on behalf of the child shall belong to the conservator who paid those expenses. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the conservator receiving the insurance payments is designated a constructive trustee to receive any insurance checks or payments for health-care expenses paid by the other conservator, and the conservator carrying the policy shall endorse and forward the checks or payments, along with any explanation of benefits received, to the other conservator within three days of receiving them.

12. WARNING - A PARENT ORDERED TO PROVIDE HEALTH INSURANCE OR DENTAL INSURANCE OR TO PAY THE OTHER PARENT ADDITIONAL CHILD SUPPORT FOR THE COST OF HEALTH INSURANCE OR DENTAL INSURANCE WHO FAILS TO DO SO IS LIABLE FOR NECESSARY MEDICAL EXPENSES OF THE CHILD, WITHOUT REGARD TO WHETHER THE EXPENSES WOULD HAVE BEEN PAID IF

HEALTH INSURANCE OR DENTAL INSURANCE HAD BEEN PROVIDED, AND FOR THE COST OF HEALTH INSURANCE PREMIUMS, DENTAL INSURANCE PREMIUMS, OR CONTRIBUTIONS, IF ANY, PAID ON BEHALF OF THE CHILD.

13. Notice to Employer - On this date a Medical Support Notice was authorized to be issued by the Court. For the purpose of section 1169 of title 29 of the United States Code, the conservator not carrying the health or dental insurance policy is designated the custodial parent and alternate recipient's representative.
